

MMedical

E M P L O Y M E N T A G E N C Y

Newsletter may 2015

New active recruitment in Switzerland

For more than a month MMedical is offering a wide variety of positions in Switzerland. Since the demand for european medical professionals is fairly high in Switzerland, our work is much appreciated. Both experienced specialists, nurses and general physicians are more than welcome. Please contact us, If you interested in the positions we have to offer in Switzerland.

Refer to our website for more information

Offline vacancy database

We would like to point out that not all of our available vacancies are published on our website.

If you are in a interested in positions that are not posted on our website, there is still a chance that we in fact do have these positions available in our database. If any questions arise about your options for you please do contact any of our team members.

<https://www.mmedical.nl>

Possibilities for basic MDs

Unfortunately, young basic doctors do sometimes have difficulties finding positions that match their aspirations. Therefore we are working hard to expand our portfolio with positions for basic MD's. At this moment we can offer positions for these young doctors in Germany and Switzerland. These positions are available in a wide variety of specializations. Please note that for these positions a basic to good knowledge of the German or French language is mandatory.

<https://www.mmedical.nl>

MMedical welcomes two new team members

A few weeks ago, MMedical welcomed two new team members. As the demand for our services continues to grow, we have decided to strengthen our team with two new members...

Read more