Exciting possibilities for General Practitioners in Australia

We are pleased to inform you about the growing number of opportunities for Western European and UK GPs in Australia. If you are looking for an adventurous career abroad, Australia might appeal to your likings. We offer attractive positions in and around cities like Adelaide and Brisbane. In addition, we offer roles at more rural areas. Opportunities exist for both experienced and recently qualified GPs. We can look for a practice meeting your specific wishes and preferences. If you are interested to find out whether there is a position matching your wishes, then please get in touch with one of our recruitment consultants.

Kind regards,
The MMedical Team

IELTS-Training

From January 2017 and onwards, MMedical will offer training programmes to help you preparing for the IELTS academic exam. Passing the IELTS with sufficient results is a prerequisite to successfully register with the medical board at any English speaking country. By adjusting the actual programme to your specific needs, the course will proof to be a great preparation for the four parts of the exam: reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Doctors to the UK

By expanding our network in the UK, MMedical is now able to offer a larger number of both temporary and permanent positions around England. In some positions, the possibility exists to work on part time basis and thereby combining the offered positions your current employment. Get in touch with one of our recruitment consultants to find out whether there is a position matching your preferences.
