

MMedical

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY

International
Medical Recruitment

For whom

We are pleased to offer our services to every medical institution or other medical care center that is in need of medical professionals. Our primary mission is to provide your institution with well qualified, western trained, medical professionals. We look for physicians matching your specific requests. Our services include both temporary and permanent staffing.

Where

MMedical collaborates with hospitals worldwide. Currently we offer vacancies in:

- Australia
- Bahrain
- Canada
- Caribbean
- Germany
- Ireland
- New-Zealand
- Qatar
- Saudi Arabia
- Switzerland
- United Arab Emirates
- United Kingdom

How does it work

It is possible to place a search by contacting us via telephone or email providing us with the specific requirements for the professional(s) you are looking for. Alternatively, you can upload the needed information via our website. We will then contact you to complete the vacancy which will be placed on our website after your approval.

To secure a successful placement we will actively guide the application process. Your new employee will be assisted in completing the administrative procedures required to be eligible to practice in your hospital or clinic.

Who are we

MMedical is a young firm specialized in introducing medical professionals to medical institutions all over the world. The company is led by six future medical professionals who are knowledgeable about the medical sector. Our staff is driven, involved and reliable.

We provide motivated, well qualified medical professionals who are fluent in English. Our candidates are trained following the latest insights in evidence based medicine and are working using the latest available guidelines.
