

MMMedical

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY

International
Medical Vacancies

For whom

Any medical professional interested in starting an international medical career, please feel free to get in touch with MMedical. We offer positions for recently graduated physicians and medical specialists at all levels of experience. Both temporary and permanent positions are available.

Where

We operate in multiple countries around the world. Currently we offer positions in the following countries:

- Australia
- Bahrain
- Canada
- Caribbean
- Germany
- Ireland
- New-Zealand
- Qatar
- Singapore
- United Arab Emirates
- United Kingdom
- Switzerland

How does it work

You can apply for the positions offered via our website or by contacting our representatives. Besides you can fill in our open application form on the website whereupon MMedical will search for a suitable position.

When you find a position meeting your wishes we will organise a meeting between you and the potential employer. We can guide the negotiations between you and the employer. If you decided to start an international medical career we will assist you in meeting the administrative requirements needed to be able to work in the country of choice.

Who are we

We are a young firm specializing in guiding medical professionals in starting their international medical career. The firm is lead by six future medical doctors. We are driven, reliable, and involved. Whether you admire a temporary or permanent international career, we would be glad to help you realise your international career.

- ✓ No costs involved
- ✓ For doctors, by doctors
- ✓ An exciting next step in your career
